Item Description HOUSE

Site Data

This house is named "Highfield" and is first shown on the 1907 OS Map as a three sided building and at that time named "Scotton Moor House". On the 1932 OS Map its name had been changed to "Highfield" and the building is now "L" shaped. The 1951 aerial photograph "RAF/540/520/Run RP Frame 3027" shows the house still as being "L" shaped but it and its surrounding area being a fruit farm. The 1968 OS Map shows the house being rectangular and the orchards converted to gardens.

History Summary

Highfield, known as Scotton Moor House originally, was built towards the end of the 19th century and exists today, early 21st century.
