Item Description FIELD

Site Data

This feature is a field of improved grassland used as pasture. From the N boundary the terrain slopes steeply over half its length before rising steeply up to th Ripley Road. The southern boundary adjacent th o the road is revetted over the full width of the field with the revettment height being 0.6m at the W end rising to 1.4m at the centre of its length then decreasing to 1.0m at the E end. Three m from the W extent of this boundary is a 3m wide, now disused, vehicular access into the field from the Ripley Road which has a dressed stone Gate Pier 1.2m high x 0.4m wide x 0.4m deep at the E end of the gateway. Centrally located along its E boundary is an area described as Item Number 60940141 Pond identified from a 1951AP. This is merely a depression in the low lying area of the field where drainoff from the slope collect.

History Summary

The field has remained unchanged from the mid 19th century until the present time, early 21st century apart from in 2008 when it was merged with field 4.
