Item Description	RIDGE AND FURROW

Site Data

An area of ridge and furrow in field 17 covering an area of approximately 156m x 180m. The features run north/south and measure approximately 10m from crest to crest. The ridges stand approximately 0.3m above the furrows. The area appears to extend into the woodland to the east known as Low Wood. It seems to be associated with a general agricultural landscape with other areas running east/west, very likely of medieval origin.

History Summary

The ridge and furrow is seen on the 1960's and 1970's aerial photos.
