Item Description	TRACKWAY

A raised trackway traversing the slope in the southern corner of Field 24. Structure measures over 40m in length x 6m wide and 0.7m high. Grass covered at the time of visit with exposed cobblestones at its southern extent. Aligned NNW, well pronounced shallow rounded profile at its S extent becoming less visible to centre/N extent of field. South facing aspect falling gradually to S. Slight traces of ridge and furrow can be noted from 1986 AP to the east, the alignment of which does not sit comfortably with alignment of track. To the west there is a curvilinear bank/ditch feature emerging from S fence line 5m from the track projecting into the field on a slightly different alignment. A trackway affording access from plateau of hall/courtyard down into park. Feature carries on into Jacob Smith Park crossing stream 60940221 for a distance of 10m. Possible track from old hall site into park, assume medieval/ pre 17c in origin. Cannot rule out Roman origin.
