Unique ID 60942040      PAS/CCAG CCAG      PAS No YORYM-EAC6E1
Object Mount
Broad Period Post Medieval      Culture Not Attributed

Description

Very thin copper alloy mount depicting the whiskered, squinting face of a lion. The copper sheet is thin enough to have worn through on the nose of the lion. The face has most likely been formed through stamping; each feature is in distinct relief from the next. The reverse shows signs of a lead alloy solder. The edges of the mount have been torn and damaged.
